

Patronal Festival Celebration
St Mary Magdalene Church, Bolney
Saturday, 23rd July 2022 6pm

Reverend Michael and Sabrina Windridge invite you to a Summer's Concert of 'Music and Words' in St Mary Magdalene Church, Bolney to celebrate our Patronal Festival.

Halcyon Voices

Music will be performed by Halcyon Voices, directed by Sebastian Charlesworth, renowned conductor of the New Sussex Singers. The choir contains some of the finest young singers in the country and will perform several pieces, both sacred and secular, to accompany our distinguished visiting speaker's stories.

Women's voices

The Revd Dr. Trevor Dennis, former Chaplain at Eton and retired Vice Dean of Chester Cathedral, is a leading author concerned with the role of women in the Bible. He will be reading some of his published stories culminating in a piece about Mary of Magdala, 'Teaching God to dance'.

Trevor writes 'The Bible is a tale told by men, and their voices are too loud. But when the women of the Bible are given a chance to speak out, what might we hear?'

Strawberries, cream and a glass (or two!) available in the Vicarage Garden, 5pm-5.45pm
Tickets (free) can be obtained by emailing michael.windridge@talk21.com.
