

Charity Art Auction

June 2023 Catalogue

Stephen Haskins

The Friends of Holy Trinity brings together all in the Cuckfield community - whether churchgoers or not - who value the 1,000-year old church building and the many very special features within it.

With its charitable status, the Friends raises funds to ensure that the building and its principal artefacts can be conserved, restored and added to so that it can continue to serve our own and many generations to come - just as it has done in the past.

The Friends raises funds through its membership, donations and legacies and through the proceeds from a number of events that it puts on each year.

This Charity Auction is one such event. We hope that the artworks for sale will interest you.

As well as considering bidding for the artworks that are in this catalogue, we would like to invite you to become a member of the Friends. This will not only help our fundraising, but will bring you a number of benefits including reduced-price and even some free members-only events.

You can join the Friends by:

- ◇ picking up a leaflet and joining form from the entrance area of the Church;
- ◇ emailing friends@holytrinitycuckfield.org;
- ◇ downloading the form from the Church website: <https://www.holytrinitycuckfield.org/wp-content/uploads/2022/11/FRIENDS-JOINING-FORM-OCT-2022.pdf>

We look forward to welcoming you!

About this auction

45 artworks have been donated to the Friends for this auction. All the funds raised from their sale will go to the Friends' charitable initiatives for Holy Trinity Church Cuckfield.

We are hugely grateful to each of the donors - thank you! Special thanks must go to Don Cranefield, one of Cuckfield's great artists, and his family who have donated a large number of pictures upon his retirement.

Each of the artworks is pictured and described in this catalogue. Most are beautifully mounted and framed and most - other than oil paintings - are under glass.

The dimensions given (height x width) are for the frame - not the picture - and are approxima

Viewing

All artworks can be viewed in the Church on Saturday 10th June from 10am-4pm. Individual artworks can be viewed by special arrangement by contacting the Friends at:
friends@holytrinitycuckfield.org.

How to bid

This is a simplified form of auction - there is not an event, nor is the auction online.

Bids (in units of £10 please) at or above the Starting price can be made by:

Filling in a bidding form or forms in the back of this catalogue and:

(a) handing it/them in or posting it/them to the Church Office, The Old School, Church Street, Cuckfield, RH17 5JZ; or

(b) giving it/them to a Friends' Committee member.

Or:

Scanning the bidding form/s (or repeating the information requested on it) in an email to:

friends@holytrinitycuckfield.org.

If you are outbid, you will be notified (up to 30th June) and given the chance to increase your bid.

The auction will close at Noon on 2nd July 2023 and successful bidders will be notified, payments taken and artworks delivered, after that.

There is no auction commission but successful bidders will be invited to add a £10 donation to their bid to cover the Friends' costs.
