Reflection

The threat that stalks the Holy Family and the massacre of the Innocents stand as haunting reminders of the lust for revenge to which this world is subject, this fallen world into which the Messiah came to be a sign of contradiction. Over the cradle, the cross looms - but so do love and self-sacrificing humility. In juxtaposition with the chilling destruction of young life and Herod's bloodthirsty rage is the quiet, humble, and swift obedience of Joseph. Hearing the message of God through an angel, this upright man acts quickly and unhesitatingly to rescue the saviour of the world.

Collect

Almighty God, who wonderfully created us in your own Image and yet more wonderfully restored us through your Son Jesus Christ: grant that, as he came to share in our humanity, so we may share the life of his divinity; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Post Communion Prayer

Heavenly Father, whose blessed Son shared at Nazareth the life of an earthly home: help your Church to live as one family, united in love and obedience, and bring us all at last to our home in heaven; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

First Reading

Isaiah 63.7-9

Isaiah recounts God mercy on Israel, for in his love and pity he redeemed them

I will recount the gracious deeds of the LORD, the praiseworthy acts of the LORD, because of all that the LORD has done for us, and the great favour to the house of Israel that he has shown them according to his mercy, according to the abundance of his steadfast love. For he said, 'Surely they are my people, children who will not deal falsely'; and he became their saviour in all their distress. It was no messenger or angel but his presence that saved them; in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; he lifted them up and carried them all the days of old.

Second Reading

Hebrews 2.10-end

As Christ shared our flesh and blood, he destroys death and the devil and atones for our sins

it was fitting that God, for whom and through whom all things exist, in bringing many children to glory, should make the pioneer of their salvation perfect through sufferings. For the one who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one Father. For this reason Jesus is not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters, saying, 'I will proclaim your name to my brothers and sisters, in the midst of the congregation I will praise you.' And again, 'I will put my trust in him.' And again, 'Here am I and the children whom God has given me.' Since, therefore, the children share flesh and blood, he himself likewise shared the same things, so that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by the fear of death. For it is clear that he did not come to help angels, but the descendants of Abraham. Therefore he had to become like his brothers and sisters in every respect, so that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make a sacrifice of atonement for the sins of the people. Because he himself was tested by what he suffered, he is able to help those who are being tested.

Gospel

Matthew 2.13-end

The flight to Egypt and the massacre of the innocents

Now after they had left, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, 'Get up, take the child and his mother, and flee to Egypt, and remain there until I tell you; for Herod is about to search for the child, to destroy him.' Then Joseph got up, took the child and his mother by night, and went to Egypt, and remained there until the death of Herod. This was to fulfil what had been spoken by the Lord through the prophet, 'Out of Egypt I have called my son.' When Herod saw that he had been tricked by the wise men, he was infuriated, and he sent and killed all the children in and around Bethlehem who were two years old or under, according to the time that he had learned from the wise men. Then was fulfilled what had been spoken through the prophet Jeremiah: 'A voice was heard in Ramah, wailing and loud lamentation, Rachel weeping for her children; she refused to be consoled, because they are no more.' When Herod died, an angel of the Lord suddenly appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt and said, 'Get up, take the child and his mother, and go to the land of Israel, for those who were seeking the child's life are dead.' Then Joseph got up, took the child and his mother, and went to the land of Israel. But when he heard that Archelaus was ruling over Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. And after being warned in a dream, he went away to the district of Galilee. There he made his home in a town called Nazareth, so that what had been spoken through the prophets might be fulfilled, 'He will be called a Nazorean.'

We pray for all involved in working for justice; we pray for all waiting for justice. We pray for those who feel unheard or confused, and for those with little access to legal support and advice. We pray locally, for the people of Barrowfield, that they may have a sense of God's love and creation around them.

Tue Dec 30th - We pray for all who live and all who work in care homes. We pray for skills, for humour, for patience, understanding and compassion. We pray that the rights and dignity of all are respected and maintained in our society. We pray for the people of Bennetts that they feel the security of a safe, welcoming neighbourhood.

Wed Dec 31st - We pray for those, who feel low, despondent or despairing; those for whom the party atmosphere of New Year's Eve serves to isolate them further or feel more disconnected. We pray for those who will be working, coping with the heightened emotions or desperation of people in their bars, clubs, restaurants. We pray for all who seek to alleviate the suffering and loneliness of others. We pray for those working and responding to emergency or accident situations. We pray for the people of Bevan Bank, that they may feel the cheer and hospitality of the Christmas season.

Thu Jan 1st - New Year's Day. We pray locally for the people of Bishopstone Lane, that they may have a sense of the wonder and diversity of God's creation.

Fri Jan 2nd - We pray for all who have suffered and are suffering now from domestic abuse. We pray that they are given the strength and support to find a way to safety and renewed self-esteem. We pray for the perpetrators of domestic abuse, that they too find the courage and self-awareness to own the part they play, and enable them to seek help. We pray for those, who in daily life continue to casually dismiss and undermine women, children and all situations of domestic abuse. Locally we pray for Blunden Drive that they may feel the joy, security and value of belonging within a caring and supportive community.

Sat Jan 3rd - We look to World Braille Day (4th) and pray for those living with disabilities of all kinds. We give thanks for all those who work to encourage and enable greater independence and flourishing of skills and self-esteem.
