Reflection

In the gospel accounts, the descent of the Holy Spirit and the voice from heaven make Jesus' baptism remarkable. Matthew adds detail of the prior exchange between Jesus and John over precedence which further emphasizes the distinctiveness of the occasion. It is a radical act of humility as the Son of God fully inhabits his humanity. However, to focus too closely on what sets Jesus apart risks distracting us from the equally radical and humbling truth that baptism is the highest vocation of each and every one of us, as we are called by name and proclaimed as precious in God's sight.

Collect

Eternal Father, who at the baptism of Jesus revealed him to be your Son, anointing him with the Holy Spirit: grant to us, who are born again by water and the Spirit, that we may be faithful to our calling as your adopted children; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Post Communion Prayer

Lord God, the bright splendour whom the nations seek: may we who with the wise men have been drawn by your light discern the glory of your presence in your Son, the Word made flesh, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Isaiah 42.1-9

Here is my servant, who will bring justice to the nations

Here is my servant, whom I uphold, my chosen, in whom my soul delights; I have put my spirit upon him; he will bring forth justice to the nations. He will not cry or lift up his voice or make it heard in the street; a bruised reed he will not break, and a dimly burning wick he will not quench; he will faithfully bring forth justice. He will not grow faint or be crushed until he has established justice in the earth; and the coastlands wait for his teaching.

Thus says God, the LORD, who created the heavens and stretched them out, who spread out the earth and what comes from it, who gives breath to the people upon it and spirit to those who walk in it: I am the LORD, I have called you in righteousness, I have taken you by the hand and kept you; I have given you as a covenant to the people, a light to the nations, to open the eyes that are blind, to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon, from the prison those who sit in darkness. I am the LORD, that is my name; my glory I give to no other, nor my praise to idols. See, the former things have come to pass, and new things I now declare; before they spring forth, I tell you of them.

Second Reading

Acts 10.34-43

Jesus of Nazareth went about doing good and healing, for God was with him

Then Peter began to speak to them: 'I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ—he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.'

Gospel

Matthew 3.13-end

The baptism of Jesus

Then Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan, to be baptized by him. John would have prevented him, saying, 'I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?' But Jesus answered him, 'Let it be so now; for it is proper for us in this way to fulfil all righteousness.' Then he consented. And when Jesus had been baptized, just as he came up from the water, suddenly the heavens were opened to him and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting on him. And a voice from heaven said, 'This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.'

Praying through the week...

Mon Jan 12th - We remember the Christmas message of Christ Prince of Peace. We remember Jesus, a Palestinian Jew, as a young child with his parents fleeing a tyrannical regime in search of asylum, a place of safety. We pray for all seeking refuge, welcome and hospitality in our world today. Locally we pray for the all who live in or around Brick Lane, that they may feel the safety and generosity of stable neighbourhood.

Tue Jan 13th - We pray for the children in the UK; for their schools and teachers; for those involved in their health and social care; for those with special needs; for those with difficulties at home; for those living in poverty and inadequate housing; we pray for those fighting stigma, prejudice and ignorance. We pray that all children here are given their entitlement to a safe, loving childhood. We pray locally for the people of Broad Street, that they may feel the comfort and presence of God, throughout hardship and difficulties.

Wed Jan 14th - We pray for those who are homeless, those who are sleeping rough or in hostels or inadequate accommodation. We pray that we look for God in each person we meet and that they may see in us a reflection of God's love, mercy and joy. We pray for all charities and organisations supporting homeless people. Locally, we pray for the people of Brock End, that they may have peace and joy in their hearts.

Thu Jan 15th - We pray for all who have lost loved ones recently. May they know the strength and healing of our Heavenly Father. Locally we pray for the people of Brook Green; we pray that they may feel the comfort and presence of God in all they do and give thanks for the ways in which they enrich the community and environment around them.

Fri Jan 16th - We pray for greater interfaith connection and understanding. We pray for a greater willingness to listen to people of different faiths, and commitment to celebrate our common humanity. We pray locally for the people of Brook Street, for all their work in building up a sense of community and neighbourhood.

Sat Jan 17th - We pray for those who are sick and those living with debilitating medical conditions, that they have access to adequate, affordable health care. We pray for their families, friends, care and medical staff. We pray for expertise, skills, patience and compassion. We pray for Brownies, Guides, Cubs, Scouts and all local youth work that they may experience the hope and comfort of God, who loves them.
