Reflection

Late to the party in the secular season of gift giving, Epiphany offers welcome encouragement to Christians tempted back into post-festive 'normality' that Christmastide is not yet over. The rich symbolism of the Magi's presents for the Christ-child immediately puts the Incarnation into much longer perspective as King Jesus is furnished with treasures that map the journey from stable to grave. The wise men's example of interpreting signs proves of further value as the new family's peace is soon interrupted by a dream prompting their fearful flight to Egypt, an early example of the Old Testament echoes that will infuse Matthew's account of the Messiah.

Collect

O God, who by the leading of a star manifested your only Son to the peoples of the earth: mercifully grant that we, who know you now by faith, may at last behold your glory face to face; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Post Communion Prayer

Lord God, the bright splendour whom the nations seek: may we who with the wise men have been drawn by your light discern the glory of your presence in your Son, the Word made flesh, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

First Reading

Isaiah 60.1-6

Arise, shine, for the light has come; gold and frankincense shall come from Sheba

Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of the LORD has risen upon you. For darkness shall cover the earth, and thick darkness the peoples; but the LORD will arise upon you, and his glory will appear over you. Nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your dawn. Lift up your eyes and look around; they all gather together, they come to you; your sons shall come from far away, and your daughters shall be carried on their nurses' arms. Then you shall see and be radiant; your heart shall thrill and rejoice, because the abundance of the sea shall be brought to you, the wealth of the nations shall come to you. A multitude of camels shall cover you, the young camels of Midian and Ephah; all those from Sheba shall come. They shall bring gold and frankincense, and shall proclaim the praise of the LORD.

Second Reading

Ephesians 3.1-12

Paul, the least of the saints, is called to bring the Gentiles the good news of Christ

This is the reason that I Paul am a prisoner for Christ Jesus for the sake of you Gentiles—for surely you have already heard of the commission of God's grace that was given to me for you, and how the mystery was made known to me by revelation, as I wrote above in a few words, a reading of which will enable you to perceive my understanding of the mystery of Christ. In former generations this mystery was not made known to humankind, as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit: that is, the Gentiles have become fellow-heirs, members of the same body, and sharers in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel. Of this gospel I have become a servant according to the gift of God's grace that was given to me by the working of his power. Although I am the very least of all the saints, this grace was given to me to bring to the Gentiles the news of the boundless riches of Christ, and to make everyone see what is the plan of the mystery hidden for ages in God who created all things; so that through the church the wisdom of God in its rich variety might now be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly places. This was in accordance with the eternal purpose that he has carried out in Christ Jesus our Lord, in whom we have access to God in boldness and confidence through faith in him.

Gospel

Matthew 2.1-12

Magi from the east come with gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh for the newborn Jesus

In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, asking, 'Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star at its rising and have come to pay him homage.' When King Herod heard this, he was frightened, and all Jerusalem with him; and calling together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born. They told him, 'In Bethlehem of Judea; for so it has been written by the prophet: "And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for from you shall come a ruler who is to shepherd my people Israel."' Then Herod secretly called for the wise men and learned from them the exact time when the star had appeared. Then he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, 'Go and search diligently for the child; and when you have found him, bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage.' When they had heard the king, they set out; and there, ahead of them, went the star that they had seen at its rising, until it stopped over the place where the child was. When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy. On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother; and they knelt down and paid him homage. Then, opening their treasure-chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they left for their own country by another road.

Praying through the week...

Mon Jan 5th - We pray for our Church, that we may reflect the love and mercy of God in our work and worship, that we may hold fast to the essential messages of Christ - of love for all, of hope, of mercy, of humility. Help us to work for the common good. Locally we pray for the residents of Blunts Wood Road that they may feel part of a warm, robust, safe environment, where all can thrive. May they sense God's presence with them, whatever they are facing.

Tue Jan 6th - As we remember the Holy Innocents, whose lives were cut short in the days of Jesus' birth, we hold before God all children who suffer through violence, neglect, or fear in our own time. We pray for wisdom, compassion, and integrity among those entrusted with power, and for hearts shaped by justice, mercy, and peace. We ask God to strengthen all who work to protect the vulnerable and to heal broken communities. Locally, we pray for the people of Bolney Road, that they may know safety, kindness, and the support of a caring and neighbourly community.

Wed Jan 7th - We give thanks for the gift of Jesus, the gift of Truth, Incarnate Word of God. We give thanks that the gift of Jesus is for everyone, for the whole world. We pray that we are not drawn to make God in our image to suit our own prejudices, to exclude those we struggle to hear. Locally we pray for the people of Bolnore Farm Lane, for a neighbourhood of understanding, hospitality and care.

Thu Jan 8th - We pray for safe drinking water for people throughout the world; we give thanks for charities and organisations working to make this a reality. We pray for greater respect for our environment with clean waterways and coastlines, for a greater accountability of industries, water boards and trustees. We give thanks for all who live on Bordehill Lane, that they may feel the benefit of a safe, caring, neighbourly community.

Fri Jan 9th - We give thanks for the green spaces, the wild areas of our world and pray for all who work to protect and sustain them. We pray for those environmental activists who seek to educate and hold to account all in positions of authority and leadership to enable a thriving, respectful, living environment. We give thanks for their courage and tenacity. Locally we pray for Brainsmeade, that all who live there may find peace, renewal and hope in the natural world around them.

Sat Jan 10th - We pray for the families affected by mental ill health. We pray for all who are coping with extreme anxiety, confusion, disconnectedness, for those who feel desperate. We pray for those who respond to people in need, for those working in and supporting mental health services. We pray for all those living with the stresses of poverty, discrimination and conflict, which exacerbate such illness and conditions. We pray for all who work to create a healthier society and world, enabling people to connect, communicate and care. We pray locally for the people of Brainsmeade Close, that they may feel the richness of a community of respect, care and inclusivity.
